

Machine Operator

Run production equipment in the machining department to produce high-quality parts

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Mechanical ability to use production equipment, machines and tools
- Able to follow instructions, verbal and written, in completion of job duties
- Be accurate and conscientious in completing required paperwork
- Strive to ensure product meets or exceeds customer quality requirements
- Maintain communications between shift personnel to facilitate smooth/seamless production in order to meet customer delivery requirements
- Ensure and adhere to safe work practices and procedures. Understand, meet and satisfy all company safety policies and maintain a safe working environment

Skills, Traits and Education:

- High school diploma or equivalent required
- Be flexible in job assignments and duties
- Available to work overtime if required. This encompasses Saturdays
- Physically able to stand eight hours/day, bend, lift, twist, push, pull and stretch to complete job duties throughout the shift
- Cheerful, can-do attitude. Be pleasant to be around
- Consistently at work, and on time
- Must undergo drug screening, and undergo a reference or background check